EUCH DAILY NEWS

FREE DAY

Thursday was the day off in the Championship and the participants spent it mostly far away from the sports halls and balls. After the intensive party in Capitano Bar, the more courageous ones woke up early and took a field trip to the nearby Medveja while the less brave stayed in hoping they wont miss anything. The Medveja beach was soon filled with gorgeous looking handball men and women and their always faithful staff members. Since the energy was obviously left on the game fields and in Capitano the previous days, the goal of this field trip was to relax and regain energy; the most of the participants swam and sunbathed with some food and drinks. But there were even those never tired who played games still unknown in our territory and those who danced to the music beats with Becks and cocktails. There were some clouds here and there but they obviously didn't dare to mess up the organizers plans since Medveja was the only location in Rijeka outskirts where there was no rain.
